I miss my Wand-i-o every day, it's so lonely without her. My beautiful little sister was so pretty with her beautiful smile and dark sparkling eyes when she was so happy. The best person ever that had a heart of gold. She's at rest with God and he has a beautiful ANGEL.
Her sister Doris.

“ When I think of my Aunt Juanita (we called her Aunt Wande) a big smile comes to my face. We were we little we always went to Aunt Wande's and Uncle Bob's for Christmas. We had a blast playing in the basement with Johnny and Chris. The house was always festive and decorated with Christmas music blaring. Aunt Wande would come down and sing "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" and give all of us a kiss on the forehead. As we got older the celebrations were held at Mom's house. We anxiously awaited for Uncle Bob and Aunt Wande to arrive. When Aunt Wande arrived the party started. She always had so many stories, and would often end with the statement, "Reed, you're so silly!"

We all remember the KMart stories. Mr. Baney. The customer who thought she was in Zayre's. The Blue Light specials where the customers would fight over the items. Oh, I will cherish the memories. They bring a smile to my face, even when my heart is hurting.

To Uncle Bob, Chris and Johnny, I am so sorry for your loss. I wish I could be there to share my love in person, but know all of you are in my thoughts.

My beautiful sister I miss so much. Wandi-o was my best friend, she had a beautiful smile and the prettiest dark eyes that sparkled and made you feel happy. Not a day goes by that I don't feel a tear for her. I know my Wandi-o is with God and and is well and happy. I miss you every day Wandi-o, you are in my heart. I am sure you are a beautiful angel.
