“ So sorry to hear about your loss. I knew Judy as a young girl in Glasgow. I was her "baby sitter" at one time, and knew the other children as well. I noticed she had a grand daughter named Bela. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this most difficult time.

“ I was very shocked to learn of the death of Judy, I so remember her beautiful smile and countenance. I was blessed by knowing her and her family. Truly she was one of those beautiful butterflies that lit among us. I feel so lucky to have known her. My sincere sympathy to all the family and the reminder that we all have the hope of a resurrection.
