

Jugal Dasi Saha

March 3, 1921 - March 29, 2020

Jugal Dasi Saha, 99, passed away Sunday, March 29, 2020.

Jugal Dasi Saha, aged 99, was one of the strongest people alive. Though she wasn't given the opportunity to be educated and faced many obstacles, she ensured that all of her children would have opportunities in life. She was called ratnagarva (meaning jewel womb in the local neighborhood of Bangladesh), as she successfully raised all of her twelve children with higher education and established them. She loved every member of her family as much as she possibly could and was a wonderful mother, sister, daughter, grandmother, great-grandmother, mother-in-law and wife. Her intelligence, humor, kindness, resilience, and wide smile shined every moment of her life whether she was in Bangladesh, India, or the United States. In the Bhagavad Gita, Krishna states: "And whoever, at the end of his life, quits his body, remembering Me alone, at once attains My nature. Of this there is no doubt... Whatever state of being one remembers when he quits his body, that state he will attain without fail." A devout Hindu, Jugal emitted a sense of peace to all around her that she'll carry with her into the next journey. There is no doubt that her sweet soul escaped samsara and achieved moksha - one with Krishna, in a peaceful place, watching over all who love her. She blessed us with her presence and grace and lived her life wisely during her time on Earth. She is survived by twelve children, twenty-six grandchildren, and twenty great-grandchildren.

A private service will be held at, Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road.
