

Julia K. Jarboe

April 29, 1944 - September 4, 2022

Julia Kathleen Jarboe was born on April 29, 1944, so yes as she would say she was old as dirt. She was born in Gallatin, Tennessee, which she said was by the holler, its also where she learned her cooking skills.

Julia retired from Norton hospital where was did a few different things, but everyone knew her from her delivering babies, even some of her own grand babies.

Julia is proceeded in death by her parents Comer J Presley, and Lucy L Brown, also her sister Ruth Ann. Julia called herself a black widow because she is also proceeded in death by a few husband's, which her last husband was Harold Jarboe. She was also proceeded by a grand daughter and a great grand- daughter.

Julia is survived by her children; favorite son Pete Presley, favorite daughter Kimberly Schwaniger, favorite son Thomas Sowders (Jackie), favorite daughter Alice Fay Otto (Jerry), and her favorite daughter Virginia Mattingly (John). She has an army of 15 grandkids, which her granddaughter Alicia got the lucky job of driving her crazy day and night. She had a even larger army of 34 and half great grand-children, the half because one is still cooking.

“ I've know Julie for a few years through Nikki. She was one of the nicest and sweetest person anyone could ever wanna meet. She treated me like family the first day I met her and every day after that. I know she loved her children and her hord of grandchildren she had. She was truly a great woman and the world won't be the same without her. She will truly be missed

“ I've been trying to think of a memory and I can't, because they all jump out at once. Flo laying in the way and I expect to hear "damnit flo". The Wind blowing outside so you need to go in and get a sweater. Just all the little things jump out at once. Sitting on the front porch with you waving at people going by, just talking about anything that pops in our heads. Your yellow rose bush you wanted finally has a perfect yellow rose on it, but my rainbow rose bush beat it by having 3 at once.
