

Karen Sue Glankler

August 8, 1944 - June 18, 2021

Karen Sue Glankler, 76, of Louisville KY, passed away, June 18th, 2021. Karen was born in Memphis Tennessee, August 8th, 1944, to her parents Sue and Frank Glankler. She was one of seven children in a bustling loving household. She graduated from St. Agnes Academy and the University of Kentucky. She was an active member of Chi Omega Fraternity. She received her Masters in Education from Memphis State University. She was dedicated to working with young children and dedicated her career to them. She served as a teacher and elementary school guidance counselor serving her last 23 years with the Kentucky Department of Education at Minors Lane Elementary School, until her retirement. Karen was a free spirit and very adventurous. She loved to travel and visited China and toured across Europe. Karen practiced Tai Chi, from which she learned to focus her energy. She loved the holidays and getting every opportunity to spend time with friends and family. Her memory will live on in all those lives she touched along her journey.

Karen was preceded in death by her parents, Sue and Frank Glankler; brothers, Frank Glankler, Jr. of Portland Oregon, and Andrew Glankler of Memphis Tennessee; and sister, Molly Surratt of Memphis.

She is survived by Sisters, Gigi Rolfes of Macon GA, Maggie Rains of Memphis TN, and Mindy Lemons, Denver CO, as well as many loving nephews, nieces and cousins.
