“ I met Kathy in the Elevator at 400 E. Gray Street. I wasn't sure how to act, because she looked like a little spit fire. I found out she really was a spit fire and I love her for it. We started chatting in that frail elevator (you were lucky to not get stuck). We chatted from the 3rd floor to the basement. I knew this lady was someone I really wanted on my team of friends. Her energy was so pure. We became closer through a health scare I had and then the Pandemic. She was funny, so witty and so smart. I'll never forget her making me feel like a part of the Health Start Team. She loved me and I love her. One of my great friends and I will truly miss. Forever in my heart she will be.

“ Kathy and I used to spend nights with our grandparents. We would be up all night, telling secrets and laughing. Our Grandmother would yell at us to shut up and go to sleep. Our Grandfather would say, oh let them be. Fun times.

My friend, My sister
Friend, my hillbilly friend, my sweet loving friend Kathy. We didn't cross paths all those years ago by accident. We might even be related, we never found out if our John Campbell is yours too. You we're like Family to me. Oh how I'm gonna miss hearing your voice. Rest in Heaven Kathy. I know you're with JESUS and your mom and dad. You have missed them so much. I will never forget you my sister. You can breathe good now... Keep the light on for me up there 🙏
