“ I will never forget the kindness neighbors, Kenny and Sara Devore. I recall numerous times as a child visiting while Sara ironed everything imaginable in the house while sharing some Tab. I was always borrowing the children's Bible stories and reading through them several times a year. I remember Kenny bringing home the new black VW and packing every inch for their camping trips across country. My Dad would laugh at all the packing believing that Kenny would not be able to get all the gear in that little car. Kenny won that challenge hands down. To the sweetest man ever in the world with the kind smile and gentle voice , you will be missed. Rest along side sweet Sara. My love to Eddie and Paula. Phyllis Shofner Sarrett.
