“ Kenny was the joy of his grandfather life when he was little and stayed with us. My father was on oxygen and Kenny was always trying to put on the tubing like him. So my dad made him a small set and he crawled around the house with it on all the time. Another thing Kenny enjoyed his green beans every time we had them he would climb up on the table and sat in front of the bowl and eat the green beans right from the bowl. Grandpa and grandma would fuss at anyone that said anything to him so he got the nickname Green Bean. I'm sure going to miss my nephew even thou I didn't get to see him and Lisa as I would of like to but everyone lives in a busy world and doesn't take the time to enjoy each other. Love to Lisa and her family for welcoming Kenny into their family
