

Kenneth Leo Rosenbaum

June 4, 2016

Rosenbaum, Kenneth Leo, 79, passed away peacefully at home on June 4, 2016, with his two daughters by his side. Ken touched the hearts of all who had the pleasure of knowing him. His family and friends will always remember how when Ken walked into a room, it was always a little brighter, filled with his smile, one-liners, songs, and love. An entrepreneur, Ken will be most fondly remembered for spinning 45's at Champ's Valley and Manslick Rollerdomes, and owning Greenwood Rollerdrome/Bingo, where countless lifetime friendships were formed. As a Shriner, he was recognized as a Life Member of the Kosair Temple. As a Mason with the Grand Lodge of KY, No. 865, Ken lived his life based on the Mason's principles with a belief in God and helping others through charitable means. Born in Louisville, Ken married Shirley Ann Grubbs from Vine Grove, and had two daughters. He is preceded in death by his his parents, Kathryn and John William Rosenbaum and brother, Bill, Jr. Survived by his two daughters, Sabrina Hackett (John) and Dr. Kathryn Rosenbaum (David Yates); and two grandchildren, Taylor and Kennedy Cochran. He is also survived by Tina, Craig and Sandi Rosenbaum; and their children and grandchildren. Ken's "Celebration of Life" will be held on Saturday, June 18, 4-8 p.m. at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Hwy. Donations are being accepted in his name at Kosair Children's Hospital and Hosparus.
