

Kenneth Wayne Shelton

November 11, 2009

Shelton, Kenneth Wayne, 70, of Louisville passed away at University of Louisville on November 11, 2009. Kenneth was the owner and operator of Ken's Tires on Dixie Highway and was a former truck driver for Valley Transportation. He was also a barber for many years. Along with being a Catholic by faith he was also a member of the Masonic Lodge. Kenneth is preceded in death by his parents Fred and Gertrude (Logsdon) Shelton; brothers, Freddie, Charles, and Tony Shelton. He is survived by his loving wife Betty (Cooke) Shelton; children, Candace "Candy" Monday, Debbie Scyphers, Rick Lindsey, Larry Lindsey, and Wayne Lindsey; sisters Mae Shelton, Mildred Sabre, Opal McGinty, Jean Heath, and Joy Hanson; eight grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Funeral Service will be noon on Saturday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, with burial in St. George Cemetery in Brandenburg, Kentucky. Visitation will be Friday from 3-8 pm and Saturday from 9am until time of service. Online condolences at www.owenfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

DN

“ you was a good friend to everyone and always brought kindness to everyones heart. we spent many of good times talking day by day about many different stories, you was a very kind and caring person towards everyone. you will be loved and missed and always in my heart.

Dale Nall - June 28, 2018 at 04:44 PM