Never have I known two more genuine, loving and generous people! We're sure going to miss that man!! Heaven's got themselves a fine new angel!!!💕💕💕💕💕

“ So many great memories, I'm not sure where to begin. I've known the Childs family since the early 90's when both they and I moved to Louisville. We became close immediately, and I consider myself very lucky to have them in my life. Kevin and Diane were there for me during a couple of really difficult times, no questions asked, come on in. They truly have hearts of gold, and Kevin's generous spirit will be something I'll always appreciate, and never forget. Long live Kevin Childs in our minds and in our hearts, a man who opened his door to all of us.

“ I will always remember his upbeat personality and contagious smile. We all had some really great times growing up with such an incredible uncle. Some of the best times was when he had instruments for all us kids so we could act like we were a band playing all his favorite songs during family get togethers. Every year we had our tradition where he'd call me on my birthday and I'd call him three days later for his. Such great times! I was incredibly lucky to have such an awesome uncle and godfather. Love and miss you. Until next time.

“ To the entire Childs family, we are all so sorry for your loss. Kevin was such a good man. I’ve known Kevin and the Childs family for some time and over the years I’ve seen how close they are as a family and I’ve learned that they are all such good people. I think Kevin had a lot to do with that. Before I ever met him, back when me and Richie were just kids, all our buddies talked about how Kevin was this big, tough guy with a cool New York accent. So when Richie invited me over for the first time, I was a little nervous. I kept thinking of Robert De Niro and how I better just keep my big mouth shut at the Childs household. Despite the nerves, I showed up and knocked on the door. The door opened almost before I finished knocking and behind it stood a tall guy with a killer mustache. “Who the hell are you?” he shouted. “I’m Brad. I’m Rich’s friend” I squeaked. “Rich. Who’s Rich! Get the hell outta here kid!” he replied and slammed the door in my face. I stood there confused but before I could decide if I’d knocked on the right door, it opened again... “I’m just messing with ya buddy! Richie and the guys are in the back. You want something to eat?” I’ve loved Kev ever since.

RIP Kevin. You will be missed.
