“ Aunt Dean and Hersheal family I sorry dur to ,y Khimo I could not come I love you all with all my heart and I am thinking of you All and I know it does not seem right that we have to bury a child , But really everything happens for a reason , I understand we may not feel that way at times but it does . I love you all . I do not know the Mother But I would also love for her to know I am also remembering her also , I am a mother of 3 and grandmother of 2 and I know what it is to love a child more then anything in this life . God be with you all I pray for peace and confort throw this and even after . love michele
