“ Kirby was a very special man in that he loved the Lord and the scripture. He studied hard to bring the truth to us in Sunday School not using the internet but searching the Bible and other references to bring the truth to the class in a way that all could understand. He shared his faith in many ways sometimes with tears in his eyes but always with love! I'm very proud to say that I was a student of his in Sunday School at Cloverleaf Baptist Church since 2009 and I'm looking forward to seeing him again at the feet of the greatest teacher of all Jesus Christ! Love to your family Kirby rest in God's loving arms! Bobbie

“ Had it on my heart to search for family today and found theses tributes to Kirby's life. He was my cousin. I am his Aunt Ada's daughter Jenny. Sad that he is gone. Wonderful to read about his life and relationship with Jesus. I share this and know that someday in eternity we will reconnect in heaven.

“ Kirby was our Sunday School teacher when we first came to Cloverleaf Baptist church in 2009. We sat in the 2nd row and we learned so much from his teaching. He was so knowledgeable about the lesson because he studied all week getting prepared. He asked me if I would like to teach his class, I told him that would be too hard because his class was about 60 people, he said when you are talking about Jesus, He gives you the strength to do the job. I believe God was using him to encourage me to start teaching. In 2010, I started teaching a class and I called Kirby at times and we would talk about the lesson. He loved people and had concern for their spiritual welfare. I know he is in the presence of Jesus, and that makes his passing easier to bear. Marcia and the family will miss him as we do, but, we know we'll see him again. Love and prayers for the family. George and Bea Cundiff

“ They just didn't come any better than Kirby Hawks. He was a loving husband to Marcia, a wonderful father to his children, an adored grandfather and great grandfather, a precious brother and a dear friend. Kirby was a true man of God who loved Jesus and served him faithfully in many different ways. Cloverleaf church has been so enriched by this servant of the Lord. He will be greatly missed. I shall always count it an honor and privilege to have served as his pastor for 30 years. Kirby fought a good fight, he finished his race, and he kept the faith. "Well done good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:21).

“ Marcie, My family & I have always loved you & Kirby. I've tried to figure out how old I was when he was my Sunday school teacher at Arcade church. I think I was 13 which would have made him about 23. Kirby was a great man. Jesus was in his smile. I will be praying for you & the kids. Love, Vickie Carmany Jones
