“ I met Kristie about 10 years ago when she started doing my hair. But she was so much more than that. That front door would swing open and there she stood always looking stunning with a huge smile in her black apron. We shared so many stories over the years. We'd summarize what was new in the 3 hours I'd spend downstairs. I watched Knox potty train. She'd do my hair 8 months pregnant and we'd laugh about her belly rubbing on me. I held Landrie in my lap and tried to always have a dollar and gum for her. I watched Kynlee grow into a beautiful young lady. One day Jessie came downstairs, even though she wasn't supposed to, and just curled in my lap while Kristie washed my hair. I have longed for the day that she'd be able to swing that door open for me again. Nobody will ever be as good as her with my hair. But mostly, I will never find a person that I can't wait to talk to the way I did her. I always had to love on that dog. I loved watching how much her and Lee had things all figured out. They always were so calm and spoke softly to each other. They never seemed stressed. They always were in love. I have missed her so much the last 11 months. I will miss her and the entire Senn family.

I hope when I get to Heaven, she is the one that opens the door for me. I love her.

“ I will always remember her running around in the yard on dreamsend when the guys Steve , Kevin and mike had flashlights and the bats starting flying around ,Kristi was eating a chocolate chip pop tart when all of a sudden one of the bats flew down and attached to her leg she was running around trying to shake that bat off and she was throwing pop tart at it telling it to eat this. She was such a fun loving person and I am thankful I had opportunity to know her and the berry family love to all. With love Byrd
