“ My sister Patty informed me this week of Larry's passing. I was saddened by the news but will always recall his sense of humor when we were kids. To me, he was always "Zippy" and I fondly recall many childhood days hanging out with him in the 'hood and sharing laughs and crazy stories. I had heard in recent years from my late Mom that he had had some health issues and I knew he was in a courageous battle with diabetes. I am sorry that he is gone at such a young age. I will be thinking of his family during this time of loss and bereavement.

“ My Zippy, my life friend who stuck closer than a brother. How sad for me that you are home butas I knew your heart... I know you are rejoicing in the presence of your saviour, Jesus.

*How I will miss your compassion, genius, wisdom and direction.
How I will miss your contagious laughter and memories we have.*

Your love for you mom, brothers and extended family was always on your heart and you spoke of all always.

*You faced more challenges than any one person should face... but won. Victory after victory, battle after battle. I am so proud to have shared your time of this life. I love you now and forever.
My children learned to know you and valued you too.*

Until then my friend, until then.

In Christ I pray

“ This morning I received the sad news about Larry's passing. Even though it was four years ago since we last spoke, Larry has always been in my thoughts and prayers.

Your family may not know this, but Larry and I were very close friends when we were young. We spent many special times together in church, grade school, and during the summers of our college years, which continued as we grew older. Those memories have lasted for over fifty years and I am blessed to have them.

My condolences are to the entire Byrne family. May God bless you all. Pamela Deane Williams
