“Dad words can't describe how I feel knowing I will never get to talk to you again. You fought so hard and even in the hospital you was worried about mom instead of yourself. That was just how you was. I'm gonna miss you so much our day trips we all took to hubsers at strawberry season all of our out to eat adventures. Your what I'm gonna miss the most your humor our laughs and our long talks. I love you dad your son James.
