“ Sorry missed this, Dolly, Cathy and Larry were always a team. He was too young, your cousin Nancy.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences to all of Larry's family and friends. It was with a saddened heart and deep regret that I learned of Larry's sudden passing from fellow co-workers. It was my pleasure to have the opportunity to deal with Larry from time to time at W.W.Williams. In those few exchanges, I quickly got to know the genuine friendship he so easily extended to others. He was a true gentleman, and is sorely missed by many others here at Carrier. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of those close to him.

“ Ricky and Erin Lewis and the family.

Your in our thoughts and prayers today and always! May God be with you and the family in your time of loss. May he send his comforting angel to be with you during this time.

John 14:27-29 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe.

Love Joann and the girls.

“ I went to all through school with Larry and we used to jokingly call each other 'Cuz', don't remember why - we weren't really rekared, but we were good friends during our younger years. (my maiden name was Threedouble).Last saw him at our grade school reunion a few years ago. We all hated that he missed the one in 2012, we are a pretty close group. You will be missed, rest in peace and may God keep your family close. Praying for all of you.

“ I knew Larry through our many parts and service phone conversations at W.W. Williams for about 16 years. He was such a sweet guy and always had me laughing and smiling. We all loved Larry and he helped so many of us throughout the years. I only met Larry several times during company functions and he always spoke of his family. He was a proud husband, daddy and grandpa. He will be missed by all of us and he was loved by all of us, too. A first-class guy all the way. Darlene-We are all broken hearted. Please accept our deepest sympathies.
