“ The world is a lesser place without Larry Larimore. Larry had one of the greatest hearts of any individual I've ever known. A great American. A good friend for over 30 years. A wonderful musician and a very talented man. Louisville will be at a loss without Larry Larimore, without his contributions to the Community. We will miss him very much. God bless you Mary Jo and your family. With love, Jim and Lisa Mills

“ Jo

I'm lost for words that could express the sadness I have of learning of Larry's death.

I know he will be missed tremendously by not only you and his family, but by the many friends that he has made over his lifetime.

Of the few friends that I have I could really call close friends, Larry was one of them.

The little group of Elkins, Woody, Flanigan, Larry and myself spent many wonderful times together. As we grew older, those adventure of whitewater canoeing, camping under the stars at the gorge became less frequent, but always made great stories to talk about in a cabin we would rent. We would laugh and still have the greatest time remembering. Larry would always bring his guitar and I would love hearing him play and sing. He will be sadly missed by all of us, but he will always be in our hearts and stories till our time comes to be with him again. I am not sure if you where aware of him telling me at Elkins birthday party how much he had enjoyed life. We where both talking about death and he was saying that he had told everyone not to grieve over his passing, because he had enjoyed all the things he had done over his lifetime.

I think that is true, but to be honest Jo I know we all want to live as long as we can, and losing Larry is something I am have a hard time accepting. I am sure Elkins, Woody, and Joe feel the same. If you ever need anything please call.

Always
