“ I've known Larry since he began his career with Kenmark 27 years ago. We connected right away with his humor (I loved his laugh) and sharing of his bbq pictures and especially sharing pictures of his adorable grandkids. The early days of VEW when he went were so much fun. We always enjoyed a beer or two after work with other friends and just had a great time. Larry's friendship really touched me. God bless him and RIP. Love you.

Larry would send beautiful videos of his grandchildren often, and we would cheer on the Tampa Bay Bucs together on Sundays. I loved when he called me Retta, I would usually reply with..only you and my Dad get to call me that. And we would laugh. Love his laugh.
