“ I miss you so much daddy. As much as I didn't want to let you go, I didn't want you to suffer anymore. Please always know, that despite our past arguments and your thoughts that noone would remember you or miss youyou were and always will be loved, you will always be remembered and you will always be missed. You made me who I am. You made me a better person and a stronger person by pushing me so hard to do the best that I could do and not just do the minimum I could do to get by.

I love you and I will see you on the other side someday and I'll be bringing jube jels with me just for you.
