“ Jennifer, I am so very sorry for your loss. So sad to lose all your brothers, and at such young ages. Trey, Keith & Larry should still be alive enjoying family with you, and all the Bob & Dorothy Smalley grandchildren. I am out of town, and cannot pay my respects at the funeral home, but please know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ What a wonderful, wonderful person. Larry always had time for his friends, no matter what was going on in his life. He would always make time for you and your problems.

Classes at Butler High were not the same if he was not there. (I made Larry a TShirt when he was awarded Wittiest in the class. It was too small for him to wear even then, but he still had that shirt (for over 40+ plus years) as he told me a couple of years ago. Along with reminding me of him trying to put it on in German class!!).

Larry never missed an opportunity to make you laugh or lighten a tense moment. He didn't realize he was doing those things, they were just natural for him. And a Bar owner later in life..... how fitting was that ! He was the epitome of the psychiatrist bar tender solving all your problems over a beer.

The world will miss him, especially now. We need more people like him to keep us all in focus of what's important, and what's not.

Love and peace to you Larry. I will miss you dearly and think of you often.

“ My true soulmate in this lifetime, as we were in our lives before this one and will continue to be in future lives. " Could you be the dream that I once knew?" You gave me purpose and showed me love like no other. You were the only proof I needed to know real Gentlemen really do exist, as rare as they are. You made me feel like the luckiest person in the world, simply by knowing you. I send my heart with you, I don't need it here anymore. Our Furdren will all miss you. You're free from your medical shackles now, free to soar wherever you want to go.

I love you sooo much Larry.

*Eternal Love,
Kathleen Christopher*

All of our hearts are hurting, but yours most of all. I do not know you, but if Larry loved you, I know you must be someone very special. I hope your happy memories and the love you two shared, and still share, will help you get through these upcoming days until the passage of time allows you to look back with more smiles than tears. Blessings always. Lou/Lou Ann Steber W.

“ Dearest "Rex",
Reconnecting with you several times over a span of 45 years were some of the brightest spots in my life. We became very close after reconnecting for our 20th class reunion. You played such a huge part in class reunions and also creating opportunities for everyone to get together and not lose touch aside from reunions. You powered through so many medical issues. Like many others, I enjoyed our late-night phone conversations that went on for hours! You were right behind me in every class we shared in high school, always making me laugh when I shouldn't! I love thinking of you in another happy reunion with your mom and brothers. You are starting this new journey with the love of so many friends and family wishing you eternal peace, joy and love as you soar with the angels.
Love you forever,
"Jan" (Lou Ann Steber Windhorst)

“ Larry was such a huge part of why I loved high school. The times spent having fun were just the tip of the iceberg when you were Larry's friend. He cared deeply and never let go of his friends. I'm grateful we stayed in touch over the many years and miles.

He made me a gift in "Shop" class and I cherish the memory of him presenting little wooden letters to me that spelled L-A-R-R-Y. It was our inside joke ever since. I don't have the letters anymore, but his presence will be forever in my heart.

Larry was truly one of the best people I've known and he will be deeply missed.
