“ It can't possibly be time to say goodbye to you my friend. It was just yesterday we were young and full of ourselves....ready to enjoy whatever came along today.

I knew you as a man who followed his heart over his head....living for the moment....looking for the bright spots....be it a smile from a stranger, or a nudge to a companion to take notice of something he were noticing.

You were Toms bff. You two always had each others back...be it rescuing each other when life went into the ditch, or pointing out opportunities on the horizon.

I remember our adventures with fondness, your smiles infectious. Sometimes I felt concern for your choices...your love of life will always stay with me....

If I could attend tomarrrows services, I would make a point of telling each of you that he loved you dearly. He always had stories and pictures to show me your milestones in life and time spent with you. The grin on his face and the light in his eyes when he spoke of you showed how much he appreciated that you were part of his life. I miss him already.

“ Lee always had a smile on his face. He was always ready to help whenever he could. We will miss his drive-bys in Big Red and the signal "honk" to let us know he was out and about again. A great friend and neighbor, he will truly be missed.

*Love and Prayers.

“ Lee was such a sweet, kind and gentle man that always carried a smile. He loved Bridgette more than words can express. He was such a proud father and will be missed by so many. Our last laugh over his new ride is one I shall never forget. Thanks for your forever kindness to our family.
