

Lee Edward Wilcher

February 22, 1925 - March 12, 2022

Lee Edward Wilcher, 97, died on March 12, 2022. He was born on February 22, 1925 in Chilton KY to Ervin and Ruth Wilcher.

While proudly serving in the US Navy during WWII, he met and married his wife of 73 years, Margaret, also in the US Navy, who preceded him in death. He is also preceded in death by daughters, Christine Wilbert and Elizabeth Ann Wilcher; brothers Horace, Charles Ray, and Robert.

Lee is survived by his daughter, Susan (Gary); grandchildren, Brian Epperson, Michele Wilbert Jasne (Adam), and Mark Epperson (Susan) and great-grandchildren, Jack Epperson, Ethan Epperson, Emory Epperson, Sophia Jasne, and Lillian Jasne. He is also survived by sisters, Wanda White and Vivian Christie.

Lee retired from Ford Motor Company after working there for 30 years. He was an avid fisherman, especially enjoyed camping and fishing with his grandchildren.

His family wishes to thank everyone who cared for Lee at Glenn Ridge Health Campus

Visitation will be 5:00pm-8:00pm Wednesday, March 16, 2022 at Owen Funeral Home - Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road. A private family memorial will be held at a later date.

“ Mr. Lee was a great man, and great friend to my mom at Glen Ridge. They ate nearly every meal together once mom arrived on the floor he was also on. They were named Mr. and Mrs. Valentine. They were great friends. I appreciate the friendship they had. Your dad was an awesome man! I miss seeing him when I visit mom!
