“ Dear Albert, Mike and Greg,

Please accept my condolences over the passing of your Mom. Unfortunately, my schedule will not allow me to attend her services.

I want you to know that I admire the way you took care of her over the past few years. No one could have been more devoted and no one could have done it better.

I remember all the good times we had at your parrents' home when we were growing up and at the Holidays. Hopefully, good memories like these will help you at this difficult time.

With sympathy,

Robert
