“ Dear Darrell, Dennis and Dave,
My name is Laurie Colebank, I spent most of my childhood at my grandparent's (The Denner's) home on Witten Drive. I was so saddened to hear of your loss and wanted to send you some of my fondest memories.
My earliest memories of your dad was he delivering my very first bike, a hand-me down with a brand new purple-sparkle banana seat! He was as excited as I!
On most summer days I visited your dad's garage... just to see what he was doing. Doc would allow me to sit as long as I wished, and sometimes your mom would bring me a soda to sip on while I sat on your garage steps. After sometime of his repairing bikes, he would grab a few sugar cubes and invite me to help him treat the neighboring horses. I must have been quite a pest to your dad but he never let on, nor did he ever turn me away.
As I look back to those memories I am reminded of what a kind and gentle man your dad was, his patience and goodness will always live in my heart.

“ Dennis, Sorry to hear of your fathers passing, I pray your faith is strong enough to know that his now resting in amuch better place.

Tommy and I are still close and often speak of you and the many things you taught us. I have a great amount of respect for you, having said that, I know your father must have been a great man.
Hope to see you again soon.
