

LeRoy E. Jewell Sr.

June 16, 1938 - August 6, 2022

LeRoy E. Jewell, Sr., son of the late Benny Lewis and Dolly Jewell, was born on June 16, 1938, in Bowling Green, Kentucky. He departed life on Saturday, August 6, 2022.

At an early age, LeRoy accept Christ as his Lord and Savior. Leroy attended the Church of Christ as a young man but later attended the Little Flock Baptist Church where he married Paulette Yates in 1982. They later moved their membership to Canaan Christian Church under the leadership and guidance of the Rev. Walter Malone. As a member of Canaan Church, LeRoy served as a deacon, attended Sunday School and worship service as a faithful member.

LeRoy was a warm and social entertainer, as well being a great dad, grandfather, brother and uncle. LeRoy had a big heart, always ready to help someone young or old. He loved to lend a hand! LeRoy had much love for his family.

LeRoy was educated at High Street High School in Bowling Green, Kentucky, graduating in 1957. After graduation he came to Louisville, Kentucky to attend the University of Louisville. LeRoy worked as a Louisville fire fighter, also worked with the Jefferson County Planning and Zoning Enforcement as a Supervisor, the US Postal Service, where he served 33 years, and Whitney M. Young Job Corps. There was no position that LeRoy didn't attempt many retirements.

LeRoy leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Paulette; children Anita Stanley, Michael Jewell (Sherry), Kirk Jewell (Kim), Charles Jewell, Christina Jewell (William), LeRoy Jewell, Jr. (Lisa), and Dedrick Jewell (Katrina); 17 grandchildren; 44 great grandchildren; 2 great great grandchildren; and sister, Mary Elizabeth Rankin.

Visitation will be 10am-12pm Friday, August 19, 2022, at Canaan Christian Church, 2840 Hikes Lane, with service to follow at the church. Interment will be at Resthaven Memorial Park, 4400 Bardstown Road.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Canaan Christian Church.

“ At times like this they're no words that can be said except "I'm sorry for your lost". I will be praying for you that our Dear Lord and Savior will give you that peace which passes all understanding and will keep your heart and mind. Our Father promises to be with his children through the storms of life that each of us must face one day. Love you, your cousin, Linda Todd.
