“ My mother was the greatest woman ive ever known. She was the best mother and grandmother anyone could be blessed with. I miss her more and more everyday. Shes whom i think of when i wake through out the day and when i pray at night. I keep her alive with stories of me and my sister growing up some days i talk to her aloud as if she were in the room with me. My mother was and is my best friend she never let me down always was there for me weather it be for advice a shoulder to cry on or a hug to comfort me or just being the sweet loving mother she was. I miss her dearly what would give to have another hug a ride to were ever she needed to go a fish sandwich on saturday after she got her hair done. Thanksgiving and Christmas with my children and my nephews with her she was my life and still is after shes been gone. Linda carol houk is my mother and i am my mothers daughter if i end up being half the woman she was i consider myself to be lucky. Rest in peace my sweet momma until we meet again i take comfort in knowing you are still with me in my heart i love you forever and always
