“ This is just a comment about Linda. Her life the past 6 years that I knew her were not easy. She used to live across the street from me. I took care of her. I ran errands, mowed her lawn, cleaned her house. She had NO ONE who loved her enough to care or be there for her. Then she lost her home to foreclosure. Endured numerous hospital stays. Needless to say, things were hard on her emotionally and physically. Now she can rest. The lord knew she was tired and took her home. I love you Linda.
