“ So sorry we missed Linda's funeral.. Junior and I both were in the hospital at that time .Jodie and James had planned on making the service, but both were at the hospital taking care of us. We will miss Linda, wish I had done something to help. She was a very sweet cousin, that I had known for 40 some years. I know God has plans for her, and I hope I am there to welcome her back from death .Where she will never grow old or have to die, but can live forever in his new earth. Rest in a peaceful sleep until that time. Love , your cousin Beverly

I worked with Linda at Castle 29 for a few years. Linda always had a smile and kind words for everyone. She knew her customers. Was a pleasure to work with. Will miss seeing her. Prayers to the family. Robin
