“ From days gone by to recent visits, i will always treasure our time together. We were always buddies ! Family, yes but most importantly friends. We have laughed together and cried together. We have shared everything from church to camping trips and love and not so good times too ! Most recently, my friends became your friends. I am certain you will not fade from their memories nor mine. We all loved you and all of us feel a great sadness knowing the " The Wrecking Crew " won't be taking our trips to the hospital anymore to see our buddy ! The time we shared as friends are precious to us all ! You were a beautiful blessing to us as family and friends as well ! I thank God for blessing me with a precious person to love and never forget ! So this not goodbye but see you later ! Enjoy !!!!!
