

Loron D. Williams

December 21, 2015

Williams, Loron D., 83, passed away Monday, December 21, 2015 in Louisville. He was born to Doc and Mary (Childress) in Cub Run, KY on 26 April 1932. Loron was a US Army Veteran having enlisted at Fort KY in 1951. He proudly served the U.S. Army in Combat Arms (Armor) and served overseas in both Germany and Korea. While serving during the Korean conflict, he was injured when the main gun on his tank misfired and he was returned to the States at Walter Reed US Army hospital for treatment and recovery. Returning to civilian life, he held many positions in many businesses before settling at the B.F. Goodrich Chemical Company. He began there working as a packer, loading bundles of various rubber products. Seeking advancement, he enrolled in continuing education and at the age of 38 obtained his GED - for him, a very important personal accomplishment. He applied for and was selected for the position of relief operator and eventually earned the position of operator for the B.F. Goodrich Company in Louisville and later of the Zeon Chemical Corporation which had acquired Goodrich Chemical operations in Louisville. He retired in 1998 after 39 years dedicated service. He is preceded in death by his parents; five brothers; and three sisters. Loron is survived by his wife, Doris (Harris); his children, Catherine E. Williams (Alan), Michael L. Williams (Linda), Debra J. Austin, and Barry A. Williams; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Thurman Williams; two sisters, Myrtle Thompson (Rowe), Betty Newton (Layman). Funeral services will be Tuesday at 11:00AM at Owen Funeral Home, 5317

Dixie Highway. Burial will be at Resthaven Cemetery. Visitation will be Monday
2:00-8:00PM.

“ There are no words that can be said, that will ease the sadness in our hearts....As Days become weeks, weeks become months, and the months become years, your memory will stand the test, through out all the years.....Now your at rest, with no worries or fear, I'm sure you will be smiling when God speaks and you hear ...."Welcome home my child there is the mansion I promised you, on that glorious day".. God Speed, your Nephew, Terry Lee Williams

“ Cathy, Michael, Debbie and Barry--my deepest heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your father. He will be missed by all of us who knew him. He was my uncle and I have many fond memories of him. May you find comfort in the knowledge that he has been set free from pain and suffering and is in a better place. May God bless each of you as you moved forward without him. Love to all. Barb
