"When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

“ *My sister Renee!!
Renee and I met over 30 years ago when she lived in Virginia. I have so many memories that continue to put a smile on my face when the tears seem to form. We had so much fun together. My mom and I will never forget Renee. She was so special to us and will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Sis! We love you dearly!*

“ Renee is, will always mean a lot to me. I met Renee when she moved to Virginia, and we became best friends almost instantly! It is unbelievable that she is no longer just a phone call or social media post away. To her family and all who loved her, I pray for comfort and peace. She is our angel now!
