

Lue Wilda Margaret Clore

November 3, 1925 - January 20, 2022

Lue Wilda Margaret Bonn Clore gained her angel wings on January 20, 2022. She was 96 years young.

Lue was the happiest when she was on the dance floor. She had an endless love for dancing well into her nineties. Lue was always young at heart and never lost her zest for living and new adventures, including white water rafting at 80.

Lue was a longtime member of Hurstbourne Baptist Church and a proud member of the Red Hat's Society.

Lue is survived by her four children: Barbara Clore Payne (Harry), Sharon Diane Clore Morris (Lee), Samuel Reynolds Clore (Linda), and Cathy Clore Kleitz (Timmy Joe). She also leaves behind eight grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, her beloved sister Mildred Bonn Ladenburger and her faithful four-legged companion, Precious.

Preceding her in death is Samuel Reynolds Clore, Jr. her husband and the love of her life. Also preceding her in death are her parents Marguerite Metts Bonn and Frederick W. Bonn, her devoted sister Frances Bonn Marks, and her brother Fred Bonn, Jr.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00am Friday, January 28, 2022 at Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown, 9318 Taylorsville Road, with burial to follow at Harrods Creek Cemetery in Crestwood. Visitation will be 4:00pm-8:00pm Thursday and continues Friday from 10:00am until time of service.

“ Wonderful lady my dad went to high school with her and thought so much of her. He spoke with her at least once a week. I enjoyed the visits we would have every time we came back to Louisville. Praying for all her family and friends at this time of loss. She's dancing with god and the angels and enjoying every minute. God Bless you Lou Wilda. 🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤️

“ So sorry for your loss. I remember when I met her and saw her times after that, how young she always appeared. She always seemed happy and made you feel happy. My prayers all with all the family. I know she will be missed but her spirit will always be with you.
