“ I remember uncle Luther when he used to come over to our house. I was a little kid my dad was Walter Ray LaFfever.. he worked at faucet also I remember uncle Luther would come over once in a while and they would go down in the basement and they would cut his hair. That’s the only thing I can remember. I was little, but I always did remember that and I always went and sat on the stairs and watched so something. I never did forget I was always glad to see him come I’m sorry for your loss.. I found this tribute when I was looking for my dad. I couldn’t remember the date so I just put down the last name.
