“ Lynn and I weren't the same people at all when we first met, me Christian music her rap, me reading , her rap, lol. But we met in Willow and soon I got to know Lynn her heart . Not the persona Lynn, but the Lynn that made me laugh, gave me silly nicknames, and cried sometimes at night soon I realized Lynn was just like me my sister, my friend, just out to be loved, accepted, and for the pain to end. I love you Lynn glad we got to live together and share our time because of you so many lives have been changed. Hope they have rap in heaven sure they do though and your MP3 player is still cranked to the max....

I will never forget your laugh , smile, huge heart ,or even the way you could put me in check, or tell me to out on my big girl panties. You never judged people and always tried to help w their problems.when my mom died you literally were right there! You and B Little.. Tou guys got me thru so much that year.thank you💕ill never forget our food missions to Tari and then ours to you..every body has to eat RIGHT? Even in seg.lol ! Other missions were kept in a BOX..but we know, your nighttime cleaning 🙄or 😎wearing of sunglasses,love for 🎵 music🎧 and also flowers 🌸🌹🌺.but not so much the teachers we shared.mrt & pathfinders ESP.but you did it ! Completed it all.you were determined. I am proud to be your friend Lynn mf Mattingly..i already miss you.we all do.rip
