“ We will remember Marc as a devoted husband, father, grandpa and as a good and faithful friend. From all of his qualities, I think the best one was his sense of humor, he would make people happier when he was around. I remember his love for Puertorrican food, the rice and beans and the pasteles on Christmas which Julio and I made and brought to him a few times to enjoy. Now they are both in Heaven, may they rest in peace. With love, Figueroa family.
