“ I wish to express my sympathy to the Hildebrand family. I doubt that Mr. Hildebrand, Cheryl, or John would remember me. My parents were Chris and Mary Langford who lived a couple doors down from the Hildebrands at 2703 Butler Rd., my childhood home. I can remember Mrs. Hildebrand during the summer bringing Chery out to walk in front of her home in the early evenings. Chery was just a toddler. I don't remember John being born. Sandy Close and I (who were probably about 10 or 11 years old at the time) would dash over every night to play with Cheryl, who we thought was so very sweet and cute. Mrs. Hildebrand was always so nice to us and never discouraged us from coming although I am sure now that she would probably have enjoyed just spending alone time with her little girl! This is a delightful memory for me. I hope you all have many many happy memories!
