“ Jody & Andrea, so sorry for your loss. I wish I could be there to meet you. I only remember you when you were small children. I am Aunt Dorothy Welch's (Mildred's sister) youngest daughter. I remember many good times with Aunt Mildred, Margaret and Patsey. It's been a long hard journey for your Mom. I wish you well.

“ When I come to the end of my road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom~filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not to long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that was once shared, miss me but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in good deeds. Miss me but let me go. So sorry for your loss Andrea! This poem helped me a lot when I lost my Dad. Numbers 6:24-26
