“ For years and years, as I was growing up at Southside, Mr. and Mrs. Gaddie were such a blessing to me! Of course, Mrs. Gaddie was the quiet, soft-spoken, gentle one who meshed so well with Mr. Gaddie. I know they have passed on a great legacy. I was very sorry to hear of her passing, but it made me pause and think of so many great memories. Thinking of your family; may God bless you!

“ Our prayers for all the family. While we on earth have lost a wonderful friend, Margaret has gained what she worked for all of her life ... Eternal life free of pain and suffering and reunion with all those who preceded her to God's Heavenly Home. She is a resident of a city where the streets are made of gold, and where angels tend to her every wish. As she looks over the balustrades of Heaven and watches her service, she would probably want to say, weep not for me, I'm home. I live a good life, and my Lord called me to his side for eternity.
