“ I remember Miss Margo as a beautiful dancer and teacher at Norma Hellmueller's School of Dance in Hikes Point. She was a very caring & devoted teacher, noticed even by an at the time, grade school kid. I so sorry to read of her health struggles. May she Rest In Peace with Our Lord..

“ There was never a better friend to me than Margo. She cared so deeply for me and my dog, Maya, who was so disabled. She was a faithful, devoted friend who often showed up at my house with surprises for Maya and me. Her compassion for the animals, especially dogs, and kitties, was unsurpassed. I have observed her during this two year struggle with her health. She faced this with courage and determination. She was a beautiful role model and will be truly missed by her friends. May the Lord welcome her with peace. and rest.
