“ Aunt Judy was very special to me. We share the same birthday and that always made me feel closer to her. I loved her vibrant personality and how she filled the room with laughter and joy. I will never forget how she hugged my neck and whispered the most comforting words to me after Daddy's funeral. I loved her dearly and will miss her so much.

“ Sweet Margaret,
I will always remember your smile as you walked into the church. I will always remember your hugs. And I will always remember your warmth and kindness. You will forever hold a special place in our hearts. Thank you for such wonderful memories!
