“ Some of my greatest childhood memories consisted of being around the bon fire in Marilyn and Jess's back yard. Walking around the pond and eating marshmallows and hotdogs were always a part of the activities. I will forever remember that "YOU WHO!" that she would yell when she would come in the front door. I could go on and on about great memories with Marilyn from VBS craft projects to playing cards with her, Norma, Albert and the Richters. I was one of the luckiest people to have had Marilyn be a part of my life. She was always so full of joy and never had a negative comment to say. The attitude and spirit of the lady that you saw at church was the same that you saw at home, at the grocery store, or even at the hospital in her last days. She was a true example of how one should live their life. She will truly be missed and forever remembered. There is always comfort to know that we will meet again and pick right back up where we left off.
