“ John, Annie and I are sorry for your loss my friend. We cannot imagine the grief you must be experiencing and words are inadequate for what we are feeling and wanting to express to you right now, but I do want you to know that Annie and I are thinking of you and your family, to include Mark's kids and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you, may God hold you in the palm of His hands and help you find the strength and courage to get through this difficult time. Cherish the moments and memories you shared with your brother, Mark, because those memories will live forever!!! Death is the heartache no one can heal. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure no one can steal. May you find comfort in knowing an angel is watching over you and your family.
