

Mark Damian Powers

December 15, 2022

Mark Damian Powers was an amazing son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. Mark was born in New Hampshire and raised in Louisville, Kentucky. He attended St Clements grade school and Bishop David High School. He graduated from Louisville Technical School with an associate degree in technical drafting. We spent many weekends at Rough River that are etched in memories of some happy family times. Mark had a passion for fishing and restoring vehicles. His first job was a paperboy and later worked with his family at Ingram and Associates. For the past several years he was residing at Colonial House.

He is preceded in death by his parents, David Powers, and Elizabeth Ann Thompson (Powers)

He is survived his sisters Lisa (Burton), sons Bobby Trevor and Aaron; Stephanie Powers (Tina Menefee) son Brad Bemiss; Bridgett (Mattingly) son Brett; and son David Michael Overstreet.

“ My mom and I used to go to his assisted living facility and we would play Scrabble, Uno, and more games with him. We also ate pizza with him, and he enjoyed listening to Aerosmith and other rock bands in the car when we would take him places.
