

Marshall Lee Ashby

December 16, 1961 - May 30, 2026

Marshall Lee Ashby, 64, passed away on May 30, 2026. He was born on December 16, 1961, in Louisville, Kentucky, to his late parents, Joyce and Marshall Ashby.

He was an avid NASCAR fan and true outdoorsman who found joy in nature and time spent with those he loved most. Whether he was hunting, fishing, four-wheeling, or simply enjoying the outdoors, he was happiest outside. He cherished the countless memories made with his family at Rough River, a place that held a special place in his heart. A talented cook, he loved gathering his family and was especially known for his delicious BBQ chicken, which everyone looked forward to. Gifted with hardworking hands and a remarkable mind, he could fix just about anything. Above all, he will be remembered for his incredible sense of humor and ability to make anyone laugh, leaving smiles and treasured memories with all who knew him.

Marshall will be lovingly remembered by his children, Kimberlee Lawrence (Brian) and Trevor Ashby (Nadia); his grandchildren, Collin and Audrey Lawrence; and his cherished friend, Sharon.

His Funeral Services will be provided by Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Hwy. The visitation will be on Friday, June 5, 2026, from 4:00-7:00 PM. The service will start at 5:00 PM on Friday, and visitation will continue afterwards. There will be a cremation to follow.

The family kindly requests that memorial contributions be made to the family in lieu of flowers.

“ I remember when I was caught up in the store man racket and he paid it off for me and kept me in food for the next month just to help me get on my feet. We've been friends every since and not even this will change that for me. I'm sorry that you all have to go through this but I truly believe that he's in a better place and I'll get to see him again someday
