“ I love you Aunt Marty!!! I will always cherish our times together, Christmas dinners, Thanksgiving dinners, games & charades!!!! Thank you for always being there for me when I was a young single mom!! You used to wash Donna Jeans diapers in exchange for me doing your hair because I didn't have a washer!!!! I definitely had the better end of that deal!!!! I love your smile and that sassy way about you!! And you never took any crap for those guys down at Charlie's!!!! You still made the best chili and cheeseburgers on the planet!!! Thank you for just being you and loving so unconditionally!!! You are one of the worlds rare gems. Everyone has that one VERY special family member they love so much extra....you were mine hands down!! Please give my Dad a great big hug from me and tell him I miss him so much!!!! I know you will be happy to see all your other brothers and sister, and your mom & dad when you get there! Heck there is more there than there is here!!! Save me a seat at the bar! And we'll have one last bourbon when I get there, while we watch our beloved CATS play!!!!!!

Go rest easy!!!

Love Always!!
