“ Mom Meyer, you knew how much I love you as my mother-in-law and my friend. You & Dad are together, now just as you have prayed for for so many years. When Steve and I were married you became a mentor & took me under your wing as though I were your own. I'll never forget what a mother-in-law you were & how I will miss you so dearly! You never wavered on your faith. I have so many reasons to be proud and I was so blessed to have you in my life. Rest in peace mom!

“ Martha I saw many times since my sister married her son Steve. She was always so pleasant to be around. And she even laughed at my jokes. By all accounts she was a special mother, grandmother and good person.
