“ When we were growing up, we always had plenty of cousins to play with. But, Mary Ann and I were close to the same age and always enjoyed being together. I remember one time she and I decided to bake cookies. We baked lots of cookies and had them all over the kitchen. And, I remember us laughing about her cooking a turkey and forgot to take out the package inside. We both thought it was funny. Even though I didn't live close to her, I will miss our phone calls and cards. Rest In Peace and I'll see you again someday. I will truly miss you. Love you, Mary Ann. Linda Bolte. 3/31/20

I sure miss my special friend, but so glad she has a new well body and is at peace. Enjoying the last box of candy I had bought to take to her. She sure loved her Chocolate. Look forward to seeing you again someday.

“ As Mary Ann's only sibling, I can tell some stories. Mama wondered why I was crying so much as a baby, and found her hiding under my bed one day, she had been taking my bottle. She was 6 years older than me but I always seemed to get blamed for what she did. There was a doll house that caught fire when I was 4 that somehow I was blamed for. All in all she was a good sister. Even though we were not close in age, we were always pretty close. She knew who to call when the rent came due and needed help moving, again. She was devastated when Desmond passed, so I know now that she is happy with him in Heaven. It was hard on all of us to see her deteriorate the way she did. I hate that she is not with us anymore, but glad she is no longer suffering. I will miss her dearly.

“ Fond family memories - my sister Lucille made me (Louella) and Mary Ann a skating skirt. Mary Ann lived life and was a fun loving person. Enjoyed the times visiting with Desmond, Mary Ann and family. Enjoyed speaking with Mary Ann by phone when separated by distance. She is at rest now and her health issues are over. She is once again with her loved ones and I will see her again one day. Love you Mary Ann.
