“ This is a day I have regreted my entire life. Saying goodbye to my mother. Mom you were an amazing and wonderful person. I know I didn't call you like I should have, but it always brought a smile to my face whenever I heard a message from you on the machine. Hi Miss Kimmy, this is your mom. When we would travel to KY I just couldn't wait to give you a big hug and see your smiling face. This is the most heartbreaking thing I have ever been through but I know that in time this pain will go away and I will be alright. Not a day will go by that I won't think of you and miss you terribly. Rest now mamma and tell daddy I love him too.

“ I cannot possibly tell you girls just how sorry I am for your loss. I knew your mother every since we were little and I loved her as well. I think one thing for sure she knew you loved her, and I certainly hope you know she loved all of you to. I trust in the Lord above that he will take good care of her for you and know she will not be gone but watching over you each and everyday from this day forward till you meet again. May God comfort you and wrap you in his arms and give you peace, and I know your mother would be proud of each of you for the strong, beautiful, and loving young ladies you are today and have become. I love you all so much!
