“ Aunt Mary was such a loving and inspiring member of our family. Her faith in God, her constancy in the lives of family and friends, her determination to overcome challenges, her fun-loving spirit, and her ability to balance reality with hope are just a few of the things that will stick with us as her inspirational legacy. We know she will continue to watch over us, sharing these same gifts but finally free of the challenges she faced here on Earth. Thinking of her and Clint's wedding, just two days after Tom and I got married, am quite sure the two of them are doing this... We love you, Aunt Mary ❤️

“ I knew Mary and Clint because we were members of Kenwood Heights Christian Church. They were such a Godly couple, and I knew Mary's heart was broken when Clint went to Heaven. She is now in Heaven with him and they are reunited and with God. Although I am sad to loose a wonderful friend, I know she is not suffereing any more. Keeping her family in my thoughts and prayers and asking God to give them peace and comfort. Love you Mary :-)
